Insel by Mina Loy - Books on Google Play

Mina Loy might be a fine poet, but there's a very good reason why this novel wasn't published during her lifetime despite her numerous attempts: the writing is awful. There seems to be an amusing story about a nightmarish artistic mooch buried in the tortured prose, but unfortunately not amusing enough to warrant the effort of digging it out.

A lesson in character study punctuated by surrealism, Mina Loy's Insel demands a certain level of patience and dedication. It is a novel that feels free to dip in and out of the heart of defined literary movements or distinguished styles. This is not to say that Loy's writing is sloppy in its execution.
