Stitch Head is a new gothic children's novel similar in style to The Raven Mysteries and Undead Ed, and is the first book by Guy Bass that I've read. It's funny and kooky, while at the same time heartfelt without being mushy.

#Review ~ Stitch Head (Stitch Head #1) by Guy Bass

Stitch Head, written by Guy Bass and illustrated by Pete Williamson is a children's book very different from many others. The story follows Stitch Head, the creation of a mad scientist, that does his best to protect his creator while preventing his other creations from causing destruction or being noticed by those he protects.

Stitch head is truly fantastic. Loveable and funny characters with equal amounts of humour, mystery, suspense and great entertainment. Read this book to my 30 Y3 children and every one loved it, about 1/3 of them ended up getting the full set for christmas and having stopped reading the rest of the series.
